The mission of the UCR Library is to advance the university’s attainment of academic excellence by bringing the world’s knowledge to our faculty and students at the graduate, professional, and undergraduate levels.

Four Libraries
Tomás Rivera Library (Humanities & Social Sciences)
Raymond L. Orbach Library (Science, Technology, Engineering & Medicine)
Music Library
Multimedia Library

Services Offered
- Research assistance
- Data management plan (DMP) support
- General data management consultation
- Patent searching assistance
- Open access and copyright consultation
- Workshops on research tools such as citation management software
- Instructional sessions for classes
- Interlibrary Loan
- Library print and electronic reserves
- Workshops on research tools such as citation management software
- Instructional sessions for classes
- Interlibrary Loan
- Library print and electronic reserves

Collection Profile
- More than 3,000,000 volumes at UCR
- Access to more than 30 million volumes UC-wide
- 97,000 electronic and print journals
- 2,300,000 microforms

Distinctive Collections
- Eaton Collection of Science Fiction and Fantasy
- Water Resources Collections and Archives
- Rupert Costo Library of the American Indian
- Paul Chou Collection of Chinese history and culture
- George Brown Papers

Contacts
Ann Frenkel, Associate University Librarian for Research & Instructional Services ann.frenkel@ucr.edu
Alison Scott, Associate University Librarian for Collections & Scholarly Communications alison.scott@ucr.edu