Inter-Location One Time Payments (OTP)

- A. One Time Payment (OTP): A one-time interlocation payment is required when an academic appointee at one location (home location) is eligible to receive payment originating from another location (host location) for an event or service for a short period of less than 30 days.
- B. Example: A payment for a one-time event, such as an honorarium for a guest lecturer.
- C. Types of OTP Service:
1. Honorarium: Per APM-666, a payment (generally) not required by the University to an academic appointee for occasional lectures and similar public appearances beyond normal academic responsibilities to the University. Such service (though possibly related to normal responsibilities) falls outside the appointee's normal academic responsibilities due to the nature of the work or where it is performed (e.g., delivering an occasional lecture at a campus other than the home campus).
  2. Consultant: Per APM-664, a faculty member may receive additional compensation for occasional consultant services on projects conducted under the auspices of the University, provided that the faculty member is not regularly engaged on the project and the contract or grant for the project financed by external funds does not prohibit such compensation (e.g. consultant for workshop and training development related to curriculum, consultant for a museum, conflict resolution for troubled departments at other locations, etc.). The faculty consulting work must be approved by the Home Campus Chancellor which has been delegated to the Dean for approval authority. Additionally, there is a maximum amount of pay permitted per day, which can be calculated using these instructions from the APM: "The maximum amount per day which is permitted is the daily rate plus an additional 30 percent. The daily rate for academic-year appointees is determined by dividing the appointee's total nine-month salary by 171. For fiscal-year appointees, the daily rate is determined by dividing the total annual negotiated salary by 236." This amount must be indicated as the "Pay Rate" in the host information section of the one-time payment.
  3. Miscellaneous Academic Service: a faculty member performs service that does not fall under the classifications of an honorarium or faculty consultant (e.g. serving on a committee at another institution, reviewing grant applications, or research at another location).

D. OTP Earn Codes and Job/Title Code combinations (Depends on the type of service activity being performed and if the academic appointee is in a represented title code)

Type of OTP Service	Earn Code	Job/Title Code	Job/Title Description
Honorarium	HON	1650	Lecturer-Miscellaneous/Part Time
Additional Compensation-Consulting	ACF	3700	Faculty Consultant
Additional Compensation General	ACN	3999	Miscellaneous
By agreement flat dollar amount	RGN	3999	Miscellaneous

E. OTP Additional Guidance

1. The host department should aim to notify the home department of the activity in advance of the activity being performed at least two to three months prior to the pay date.
2. The MLA/OTP form requires at least two administrative officer signatures from the host location, which may include one academic signature from the host Department Chair/host College Dean. A second signature from Assistant Vice Provost of Academic Personnel Office. The MLA/OTP form may not have all staff signatures on both the Host Location Fund Source Authorization and Host Location Dean’s Office line signatures.
3. The Host location processes the OTP in UCPATH once the form has all appropriate signatures.
4. The honorarium amounts are stipulated by the Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs (letter date May, 11 2018). In the situation the event amount exceeds the $2,500, please forward an email to Academic Personnel Office academicpersonnel@ucr.edu for an exception approval. Please see below Honoraria Cap policy thresholds and exception approvals.
5. The total annual honoraria under this policy may not exceed 10% of the appointee’s annual base salary. State funds (19900) may not be used for honorarium payments. Gifts, endowments, and other unrestricted funds may be used.
6. The home department/home Dean’s Office staff must confirm the academic appointee is eligible to receive the honorarium prior to payment. The home department/home Dean’s Office staff must monitor the academic appointee proposed honoraria does not exceed more than 10% of their annual salary (in addition to the total annual honoraria received).
7. For academic appointees covered by a bargaining unit contract, eligibility for additional compensation (one-time payment) is determined by the terms of the collective bargaining agreement (CBA).

Honoraria Cap Per Event	UCR Approval Authority (Host Location)
$0-$2,500 per event	Dean/ Dean’s Office Staff
=>$2,501 up to $5,000 per event (exception request required)	Academic Personnel Office academicpersonnel@ucr.edu
=>$5,000 per event (exception request required from UCOP PEVC Academic Affairs)	Academic Personnel Office academicpersonnel@ucr.edu

Temporary Interlocation/Multi-Location Appointments (MLA)

- A. Temporary Interlocation/Multi-Location Appointment (MLA): A temporary interlocation transfer is considered temporary when an academic appointee at one location, the home location, accepts a position at another location, the host location, for a period of twelve months or less, with the intention of returning to work for the home location at the end of this period. A Multi-Location occurs when an academic appointee is concurrently employed by two or more UC locations.
- B. Example(s):
1. A Temporary Interlocation appointment between locations for an ongoing time, such teaching a class for a full quarter.
  2. A Temporary interlocation appointment between locations due to a mid-year permanent transfer for Spring Quarter from their home location to another UC location. The AY faculty's appointment at their home location last day of payroll period is 02/29/20 and requires to complete their service through 03/31/20. The AY professorial appointment at their home location (now the host location) is reduced to 0% FTE effective 03/01/20 through 03/31/20 and the host location (now the home location) AY professorial appointment is at 100% FTE effective 03/01/20.
  3. A Temporary interlocation appointment WOS Adjunct Professor appointment at 0% time at their home location (now the host location) for a period of less than a year for an AY Faculty appointee who has permanently transferred mid-year from their home location to another UC location and is supporting their graduate students with grants they administer.
  4. A Multi-Location concurrent appointment for a period of a year for a Faculty Administrator at 50% time at a host location and holds their professorial appointment at 50% time at their home location.
- C. MLA Additional Guidance
1. Host department conducts appropriate recruitment process, processes academic personnel review file and the position is offered to candidate.
  2. Compensation is determined on the type and length of appointment. Long term MLA may also require an MOU depending on the type of appointment and approval authority will depend on the type and length of appointment.
  3. An MLA form may be used for a recall faculty appointment for a period up to a year for a host location.
  4. Appointees less than full time may accept additional University employment up to 100 percent time.
  5. Total percent of combined concurrent appointments between the two locations should not exceed 100 percent time.
  6. The form to be initiated by the host department is the MLA/OTP form which requires at least two administrative officer signatures from the host location, which may include one academic signature from the host department Chair/host College Dean and second signature from Assistant Vice Provost of Academic Personnel Office. The MLA /OTP Form may not have all staff signatures on both the Host Location Fund Source Authorization and Host Location Dean's Office line signatures.
  7. The Host location processes the MLA in UCPath once the MLA/OTP form has all the appropriate signatures.
  8. An MLA/OTP form is required for when an AY faculty is permanently transferring to another UC location mid-year (e.g., Spring Qtr, last day on pay status 02/29/20) and is completing their remaining service period at their previous home location (e.g. service through 03/31/20).

9. Graduate student employment (may not always be concurrent) between the host and home departments should consider the following:
  - a. Is this an enrolled student? Where is the student enrolled?
  - b. Is this a fee remission eligible position?
  - c. Who is covering qualifying tuition and fees (home campus or host campus), or are the qualifying tuition and fees prorated based on a split FTE between the two campuses?

Roles and Responsibilities
